DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 12-14 and 19-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Skubitz et al. (US Patent Number 6,506,211).

Skubitz et al. disclose various embodiments of a coated, self-expanding stent comprising a plurality of serpentine band with a plurality of alternating peak portions and trough portions, the peak portions of the at least one serpentine band being at the distal end of the band such that the peak portions are more distal than the trough portions, some of the peak portions including bent peak portions which bend away from the longitudinal axis of the stent, each of the bent peak portions wrapping at least partially about an adjacent peak portion, wherein the trough portions including at least two bent troughs portions which bend toward one another, each of the bent trough portions wrapping at least partially about an adjacent trough (see various embodiments of figures (see figure 1-3).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-6, 9-11 and 15-18 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 12-14 and 19-24 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. See PTO 892 for art cited of interest.
